Supplier Voluntary Statement Combating Human Trafficking and Forced Labour in Supply Chains

[Company Name] is committed to upholding human rights in line with the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, labor standards, and ethical practices in all aspects of our operations. In alignment with the United Nations Supplier Code of Conduct and the international labour standards, we commit to proactively addressing the risk of human trafficking and forced labor both directly and indirectly in our supply chain.

Hereby we confirm our commitment to the following:

1. Prevent human trafficking and forced labour: Our company does not engage in, support, or tolerate any form of human trafficking, including forced labor, or the worst forms of child labour, within our operations and supply chain.
2. Adherence to Labor Standards: Our company complies with all applicable labor laws and regulations, ensuring fair wages, safe working conditions, worker voice and freedom from discrimination for all employees.
3. Monitoring and Due Diligence: Our company conducts regularly due diligence in identifying and mitigating risks of human trafficking and forced labour within our supply chain and ensures our subcontractors and suppliers adhere to the same ethical standards.
4. Reporting Transparency and Engagement: Our company agrees to engage and cooperate with [UN / UN Organisation] in providing relevant information to demonstrate compliance with these requirements. This includes to report any incidents of human trafficking and/or forced labour in our operations and in our supply chain. This commitment extends to our engagement with the [UN / UN Organisation] to address and remedy any issues that may arise.
5. Commitment to Continuous Improvement: We continuously evaluate and improve our policies, procedures, and practices to ensure compliance with the UN Supplier Code of Conduct and to sustain an ethical supply chain.

We confirm that the commitments outlined in this statement are integral to our business practices. We are committed to maintaining transparency, accountability, and integrity in addressing the risk of human trafficking and forced labour.

We understand that failure to comply with these requirements may result in the termination of any contractual engagement and/or disqualification from future procurement opportunities with [UN / UN Organization Name].
